Actions Against Public Authorities Supervisor

We are a Legal 500 and Chambers UK recommended firm currently recruiting an experienced Actions Against Public Authorities lawyer with supervisor status to join our London or Leeds office.

Applicants will be able to demonstrate extensive litigation experience and knowledge of general civil procedure with particular emphasis on actions against the police and other public bodies. The successful applicant will manage a small team and ensure compliance with Legal Aid Agency contract requirements.

Salary and benefits will be negotiable and will reflect experience or potential of the candidate.
Please send your CV and covering letter to recruitment@gtstewart.co.uk
