

Housing Law Legal Aid Caseworker
(incorporating Centre Project Development)

Salary: Up to £30,000 p.a. for a Caseworker
(may be negotiable if meets Housing Legal Aid Supervisor requirements)

Initial One Year Fixed-Term Contract with the potential to be extended subject to funding

Please note that we may be able to accommodate a Job Share arrangement

Suffolk Law Centre, the UK's newest Law Centre, is seeking a Housing Law Legal Aid Caseworker to start and build the Centre's Housing Law team and to build projects and partnerships right across Suffolk and beyond.

Suffolk Law Centre is a part of the Ipswich and Suffolk Council for Racial Equality (ISCRE) Group of Charities and works very closely with the other parts of ISCRE.

Ipswich has a vibrant legal, non-profit and cultural community and excellent transport links to London. The delights of the Suffolk coast and countryside are within easy reach, and house prices significantly lower than London/home-counties.

This is an exciting chance for you to build a team and to help create the Law Centre that you want to work in.

Contact: For an application pack, please email office@suffolklawcentre.org.uk or telephone 01473 408111

Deadline for applications: Friday 9th November 2018 at 5pm

Interviews: Week Commencing 26th November 2018

Start Date: To commence as soon as possible

We are an Equal Opportunities employer