

Watkins Solicitor – Child Care Solicitor vacancy

We are a busy solicitors firm with a number of departments including; Family, Education, Wills and Probate, Employment, Regulatory and Conveyancing departments. Currently we have three offices in Bristol and Bath. The firm has a Legal Aid franchise and carries out work under the Legal Aid scheme as well acting for clients on a private basis.

Due to further expansion and an increase in new client inquires another exciting opportunity has arisen within our Family Department. We are seeking to appoint a full time newly qualified and an experienced Child Care Solicitor to join Watkins Solicitors. Continual training is very much supported by the firm. The firm embraces new technology to assist with work.

1. Candidate should have experience in all aspects of child care work and undertake advocacy in Family Court. Cases will be funded by legal aid and privately funded. The role includes providing a range of legal support in particular to Children's Services, advising on care proceedings, adoption, drafting legal documentation and providing clear and concise advice. You may from time to time be asked to take on challenges outside your field of expertise.
2. The successful candidate will carry out a range of public law children cases and clients will mainly be funded under the legal aid scheme. Children Panel accreditation whilst advantageous is not essential. Should the candidate currently not be on the Children Panel, the firm would support accreditation.

We are looking for the successful candidate to have good interpersonal skills, be able to prioritise their own work load, and work to tight court deadlines. You must be able to work as part of a team and be flexible, enthusiastic and committed.

In return you can expect a rewarding career. We believe in looking after our employees which is why we offer a great flexible work policy to help you balance your personal and professional lives, Recognition Award Scheme, Child Care Scheme and Bike2Work Scheme. We also support employees working from home.

The successful candidates will initially be based at our North Street branch, but may be required to attend other branches on occasion. Monday to Friday, 9am – 5pm. If candidates would prefer to be based at other offices this may be accommodated. Candidates should have a valid practising certificate.

The salary will be highly competitive commensurate with experience and qualification.
